

Preparing your autistic child for transition to secondary school

Workshop for Parents/Carers

Description

This workshop is for parents/carers of autistic young people who are beginning to prepare for transition to secondary school. This workshop is also for parents/carers of autistic young people who are beginning to prepare for transition to college.

The workshop will last 1 hour and includes a presentation and time for answering questions.

Transition times can be extremely stressful for autistic children and young people. With the right support and interventions you can enable successful transitions to secondary school and help prevent exclusions and autistic young people struggle to adapt to a new setting.

When:

Monday 10th July 2023 at 7pm - 8pm
and

Tuesday 18th July 2023 at 7pm till 8pm
on Microsoft Teams

Who is it for:

Parents/carers of autistic young people who are currently in year 5

Benefits

This workshop is designed to provide effective transition planning for autistic Children and young people .

The workshop will support parents/carers in:

- How to support your child to cope with change
- Understanding of the application process and transition timeline
- How to prepare your child for a positive start at a new school

Joining

To join the training please use the relevant link below:

Monday 10th July

Click here to join the meeting

Tuesday 18th July

Click here to join the meeting

Ask Lion: Autism Team \(Inclusive Education Service\)

Twitter: https://twitter.com/city_autism

Facebook: www.facebook.com/nottinghamautism